MINORITY REPORT H.J.R. 1

Mr. Speaker:

January 18, 2005

In accordance with House Rule 24.16, we respectfully dissent from the majority committee report for HJR 1, JOINT RESOLUTION RELATED TO FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS, by Representative Jeff Alexander for the following reasons:

The Financial Institutions Task Force met twice in 2003 and not again until near the deadline for the Task Force report. Banks and credit unions were never asked to make a presentation to the Task Force explaining their position on the Task Force issues. The Task Force did not meet its deadline for making a report to the Business and Labor Interim Committee.

The Task Force had a statutory charge to address the “competitive equity assessment” (Section 20 of H.B. 162) and to study fourteen questions related not only to credit unions but also banks, other financial institutions, and the Department of Financial Institutions. No analysis or discussion took place on the Task Force’s charge.

Input from the National Credit Union Administration, even testimony from the agency, could have been sought by the Task Force but wasn’t. Input from our Congressional delegation could have (and still can be) requested by letter. A Resolution is not going to provide any information to congress that could not be achieved in a letter written by the chairs of the Task Force. If HJR 1 passes, it puts the Utah Legislature on record of favoring credit union taxation and criticizing federal credit union regulators.
